

Chile Group Quest

Chile is one of Latin America's oldest democracies, and provides a great opportunity for your group to participate in rewarding service work while learning and absorbing the rich history and culture of the country. The United Planet program is based in Santiago, home to about one third of all Chileans. The country is known for its striking and varied landscapes: the Atacama Desert, known as the world's driest desert, the Andes, and coast. Chileans lovingly refer to their country as "The Land of Poets": Nobel Prize-winning poets Pablo Neruda and Gabriela Mistral are a source of national pride.

Project Information

There are many project options in Chile including working in an orphanage, women's shelter, day care, healthcare, teaching, or doing construction work.

Accommodation

Accommodation options include host families or group housing.
