

India Group Quest

India is the second largest country in the world, with an estimated population of 1.12 billion people. Each of the up 28 states and 7 territories, has its own unique cultural background and heritage. It seems fair to categorize India as a cultural melting pot; over 100 languages are spoken in the country. India is significant as the birthplace of Hinduism and Buddhism. Although modern day India has a strong economy, social issues such as poverty and illiteracy are widespread.

Project Information

United Planet works with various non-governmental organizations to support social development projects in rural and urban areas.

Volunteer opportunities are available in several different locations in India: Goa, Himachal, and Rajasthan. Project possibilities include teaching, child care, elderly care, orphanage work, and construction opportunities.

Accommodation

Accommodation is in volunteer camps in all locations, where three meals a day are cooked. A driver to take you from your accommodation to your work placements and excursions is provided.
