

USA Group Quest

The USA is a large, multicultural nation, home to a wide variety of ethnic groups, traditions and values! This is truly a great opportunity for your group to make a difference in a community in the US, immerse in another culture, explore a new part of the world and learn new things about each other!

Project Information

United Planet works with self-formed groups to take part in rewarding community service projects in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. Boston is one of the most historic cities in the US and was the location of many crucial events to spark the American War of Independence. It is also a thriving center for business, culture and sports! Self-formed groups can volunteer in Boston throughout the year. Volunteers can work at food banks, homeless shelters and other community projects while exploring the city of Boston and around.

Accommodation

Accommodation is usually a blend of host families and university dormitory rooms.
